1.0 Introduction

The Management Committee wish to ensure that tenants are at the centre of our business. This policy establishes the principles by which Forth Housing Association will seek to ensure that this is the case.

2.0 Our Aims and Objectives

2.1 We aim to:

-  Improve housing services by involving tenants, and tenants/residents groups, in decisions about housing services.
-  Promote tenant participation as an integral part of the housing service.
-  Provide good quality, accurate and easily understood information to tenants, and tenants/residents groups.
-  Improve communication and feedback to tenants and tenants/residents groups.
-  Encourage and support tenants and tenants/residents groups who express an interest in being involved.
-  Provide appropriate training on the tenant participation process.
-  Ensure that appropriate resources are in place to meet these objectives.

3.0 What Do We Mean By Tenant Participation?

3.1 These quotes from the Scottish Executive are still relevant: “Tenant participation is about tenants and tenants/residents groups taking part in the decision-making processes and influencing decisions about:

-  housing policies
-  housing conditions
-  housing and related services

3.2 Tenant Participation is a two-way process, which involves the sharing of information, ideas and power. Its aim is to improve housing conditions and services.” (Scottish Executive 1999).

3.3 The results are that: “effective participation leads to better and more responsive management and this helps inform decisions about improving service delivery and providing value for money.” (Scottish Executive 2005)

4.0 Background - Legislation

4.1 Housing Scotland Acts 2001/2010

4.1.1 The Housing (Scotland) Act 2001 provides a legal framework for tenant participation to take place in Scotland. The Housing (Scotland) Act 2010 refocused but does not supersede the Tenant Participation obligations of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001. The Housing (Scotland) Act 2010 sets out the standards that are included in the Scottish Social Housing Charter 2012(SSHC). Refer to section 4.3.

4.1.2 Tenants have the right to:

- access information on policies about housing and related services.
- be consulted on issues that affect their homes.
- participate in decisions that affect the services they receive and have enough time to consider draft proposals and put forward their views.
- form independent representative organisations and apply for registration from their landlord.

4.1.3 To this end we will:

- incorporate a tenant participation strategy into the Internal Management Plan (IMP) and put it into practice.
- provide resources and support to make sure tenant participation is effective.
- regularly review how well tenant participation is working.
- set up arrangements for registering tenants groups.
- consult tenants and tenants/residents groups about proposals for housing management and the standard of service we provide.
- consult tenants and tenants/residents groups on the tenant participation strategy and ensure that it complies with equal opportunity requirements.
- consult tenants and tenants/residents groups on proposals to sell, transfer or demolish our housing.
- take on board tenants' views before decisions are taken.
- provide a statement of the amount of resources which we propose to commit to tenant participation.
- maintain a register of residents groups.

4.2 Equality Act 2010

- 4.2.1 The Equality Act 2010 applies to everyone who provides a service to the public, and is based on everyone having the right to be treated with dignity and respect.
- 4.2.2 Landlords must encourage and promote active measures to ensure that all customers have equal access to participation and that no customer is excluded from the participation process. We recognise that our customers may wish varying degrees of involvement and this policy provides a range of options and opportunities for this to happen.
- 4.2.3 To this end when we organise events, which involve customers, we will ensure that consideration is given to the following:
-  Location and timing.
  -  Using barrier free meeting venues.
  -  Allow carers, family members and /or advocates the opportunity to participate.
  -  Making information available in appropriate community languages and other forms including, for example, audio tapes, DVD and braille, tailored to customer's needs, interests and lifestyle.

4.3 Scottish Social Housing Charter (SSHC) 2012

- 4.3.1 The SSHC came into force in April 2012 setting the results and standards that all social landlords should achieve for their customers. It encourages us to work closely with our customers to deliver high quality services. Tenant scrutiny forms a key element of the Charter requirements. The Charter outcome for Tenant Participation is No 3:
- 4.3.2 "Social landlords manage their businesses so that:
Tenants and other customers find it easy to participate in and influence their landlord's decisions at a level they feel comfortable with." (Scottish Social Housing Charter - April 2012)
- 4.3.3 Measurement of our achievement of the Charter outcomes will be based upon our self-assessment of performance. Although the Scottish Housing Regulator (SHR) is not prescriptive it must fulfil a number of requirements.

4.3.4 To this end we will:

- Measure and assess progress towards or achievement of the Charter outcomes and any local outcomes that have been agreed with tenants.
- Provide SHR with key performance information on achievement of the outcomes.
- Report on the outcome of the assessment to tenants and others who use the services.
- Provide SHR with a copy of the annual report that we publish for tenants and other service users.
- Provide a statement of how tenants have been involved in the self-assessment process.
- Provide a statement on how areas for improvement will be addressed.
- Provide a statement on how the self-assessment was carried out and how assurance on findings was obtained.
