FORTH HOUSING ASSOCIATION LIMITED

SUB-LETTING & LODGERS POLICY

1.0 Introduction

- 1.1 The purpose of this policy is to outline Forth's requirement to accept and consider any application to sub-let a tenancy or take in a lodger as set out in the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001.
- 1.2 Sub-letting describes the process which takes place when a tenant (the principal tenant) rents all or part of their home to another person. This person then becomes the sub-tenant of the principal tenant.
- 1.3 A lodger can be defined as a person, who is not related to the tenant as someone who occupies a room or rooms of a tenanted property and may receive services in relation to the accommodation - meals, laundry services, utility bills etc.

2.0 General Principles

- 2.1 Tenants have the right to sub-let their homes or take in a lodger provided the eligibility criteria are met and they have the prior written consent of the Association.
- 2.2 In assessing an application, Forth will not withhold consent unreasonably. The Association will take account of both the tenant's and the proposed sub-tenant's/lodgers circumstances both of which should satisfy the criteria set down in Section 32 and Part 2 of Schedule 5 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001.
- 2.3 The Association will ensure that the tenant understands the implications of subletting or having a lodger.
- 2.4 There is no legal relationship between the sub-tenant or Lodger and the Association. The principal tenant will continue to be responsible for all the conditions of the tenancy and to pay rent directly to the Association.
- 2.5 The Sub-tenant or Lodger does not have rights of succession to the property.
- 2.6 The tenant will be responsible for any costs incurred by the Association in relation to the sub-let or lodging.
- 2.7 The period of the sub-let/lodging will be for a maximum of six months. The sub-let may be extended beyond this maximum period at the discretion of the Association.

3.0 Reasons For Which An Application May Be Refused

3.1 Although the list is not exhaustive, below are some of the grounds under which an application to sub-let/lodging may be refused:-

- A Notice of Recovery of Possessions has been served against the tenant on any of the “conduct grounds” set out in paragraphs 1-7 of Schedule 2 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001
- An Order for Recovery of Possession has been made against the tenant
- A payment has been received by the tenant, in cash or in kind, in consideration of the sub-let/lodging other than a reasonable rent or deposit
- The sub-let/lodging would lead to an overcrowding situation
- The property in question has had substantial adaptation of has design features which are not required by the sub-tenant.
- Where there is substantial damage or disrepair to the property caused by the tenant, a member of the household or a visitor to the property
- Where a scheme has been specifically designated for a particular client type and the prospective sub-tenant/lodger does not meet the criteria
- Where the term or the conditions of the sub-letting/lodgers arrangement are deemed to be unreasonable
- The tenant has outstanding debt owed to the Association in terms of their tenancy
- The prospective sub-tenant/lodger has deliberately omitted, distorted or given false information on their application
- The prospective sub-tenant/lodger has pursued a course of anti-social behaviour or has been convicted of using a previous tenancy for illegal or immoral purposes or has an Anti Social Behaviour Order (ASBO) out against them within the past 3 years

4.0 Appeals

4.1 Any appeal on a decision where consent had been refused should be made initially to the Tenant Services Manager. Where the Tenant Services upholds the original decision, the tenant can pursue any further grievance through the Association’s Complaints Procedure. This does not prejudice the tenant’s right to raise a Court Action under Schedule 5 Part 2 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001.

5.0 Policy Review and Period

5.1 Management Committee will review this policy at least every 3 years, and staff are responsible for ensuring that they meet legal and good practice requirements.
