Do members get any payment?

Members get no financial benefit from joining Forth. Any surplus money that the Association generates is used to benefit tenants and the communities we work in.

Staff get paid wages for their work but ordinary Association members and Management Committee members receive no payments.

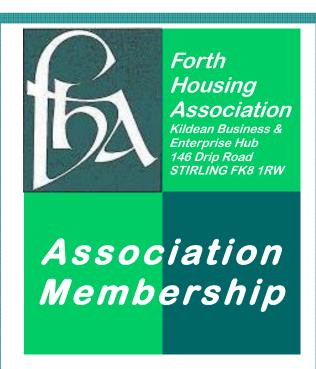

How to find out more?

If anyone wishes to get further information about Association membership or being a Management Committee member they can contact the Director at the Forth office by phoning 01786 446066 or e-mailing Info@forthha.org.uk.

A guide about being an Association member

Forth Housing Association Ltd is a Registered Scottish Charity No SC003550

What are the benefits of Association membership

Being a member of Forth allows people to actually have a say about how it is run and develops in the future.

The Association employs staff to do the day-to-day work but the overall control lies with the members via a Management Committee.

The committee is made up of members who are elected at the Annual General Meeting.

Members are kept up to date with the Association's activities. They are able to come to the Annual General Meeting and can also vote or stand for election to the Management Committee.

Forth is regulated by government agencies, who seek to ensure that it operates effectively. However it is only through a strong and active membership that we can be sure to maintain

Who can join the Association?

Membership of Forth is open to the following:

All tenants and Sharing owners within the Association's developments.

Other adult residents of Stirling, Plean, Bannockburn, Cambusbarron, Fallin, Cowie, Dunblane and surrounding areas.

Individuals with a particular interest or experience in the Association's work.
